

MEMORY

BELL TOWER RESIDENCE PRESENTS:

Care for the Changing Faces of Dementia

Featuring Award-winning Speaker and Acclaimed Author of Nine Books

Brenda Avadian, MA

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25

PROGRAM AGENDA

- 9 A.M. Sign In
- 9:30 A.M. Welcome
- 9:45 A.M. Part 1: The Visit
We have little idea what's ahead when a loved one needs us
- Break
- 11 A.M. Part 2: Can I Survive as a Caregiver?
Help! We can't do it alone. We need help and the Continuum of Care gives us options
- Noon Lunch
- 1 P.M. Part 2: Continued
- Break
- 2:15 P.M. Part 3: Making the Best Out of the Most Difficult Decision
Placing a loved one under someone else's full-time care will be successful if we do these things
- Part 4: Tying it all Together and Beyond
Nothing is more comforting during our senior years than the confidence that we will be well-cared for.
- 3:30 P.M. Complete Evaluations
- 3:45 P.M. Concluding Remarks

BRENDA AVADIAN, MA,
a native

Wisconsinite, is the founder of TheCaregiversVoice.com, which brings hope and strength to caregivers for adults with cognitive impairments through knowledge, support, resources and humor. The author of the pioneering family caregiving memoir: "Where's my shoes?" My Father's Walk through Alzheimer's, Brenda has written nine books and serves as a national spokesperson and expert on family caregiving for people with dementia. She earned her degrees from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

1500 O'Day Street
Merrill, WI 54452

www.belltowerresidence.org